
UNIVERSITY OF ALASKA FAIRBANKS

NANOOK HALL OF FAME

SELECTION CRITERIA

The Nanook Hall of Fame has been established in order to honor and preserve the memory of the men and women who, through their outstanding contributions both in intercollegiate athletics and community involvement, have brought honor and distinction to the University of Alaska Fairbanks. It exists to recognize not only outstanding contributions of student-athletes but the contributions of coaches, administrators, athletic staff, community members and others who, in a positive way, have promoted the mission of UAF and the Alaska Nanooks.

Criteria for selection include but are not limited to the following:

Individual Honoree

The qualifications to be inducted as an individual former student-athlete into the Nanook Hall of Fame are as follows:

1. A candidate must have participated as a student-athlete at UAF.
2. A candidate must have both an outstanding athletic career as well as an exemplary life of community involvement which reflects positively upon the person and UAF.
3. A candidate is eligible on the fifth year after completing his/her last season as a UAF student-athlete.
4. A candidate's graduation and exemplary academic achievement are considered desirable qualifications.
5. A candidate may be inducted posthumously. The five-year rule may be waived by a two-thirds vote of the Selection Committee.
6. Contributions and records of the person(s) considered shall be so outstanding that there will be little question of the person(s) meeting the qualifications necessary for induction.

Team Honoree

The qualifications for a team to be inducted into the Nanook Hall of Fame shall be identical to the qualifications for individual honorees along with the following:

1. A team must have achieved a high degree of success.
2. A team must have made a substantial contribution to the prestige of UAF (such as National Championship or Regional Championship).
3. A team is eligible for induction on the fifth year since the team last competed.

All Other Nominees (Coaches, Athletic Administrators, Athletic Staff, Boosters, etc.)

The qualifications for all other nominees to be inducted into the Nanook Hall of Fame are as follows:

1. A candidate must have made extraordinary contributions to the success of intercollegiate athletics at UAF.
2. A candidate must have made a positive impact on UAF and his/her community.
3. A candidate may be inducted posthumously.

Nomination Requirements

Nominations must be received by April 30 to be considered for the fall induction. Nominations should include sports played, athletic accomplishments (school records, conference records, etc.) and special recognition (all-conference, All American, MVP, etc).
